STAMPS ADVERTISING POLICY

STAMPS Magazine offer advertising space for the purpose of bringing buyer and seller together for their mutual benefit. The reader must be able to expect satisfactory service from the advertiser in order to respond to future advertisements. It is by giving such satisfactory service that advertisers can expect to continue productive advertising. Readers are reminded that all transactions are "two-way streets," and equity must exist for both parties for a satisfactory transaction.

Advertisements submitted, which are not in the best interests of the advertiser specifically, and of the trade generally, in the opinion of the publishers, or which may mislead readers, will be rejected. Customer checks of advertisers are periodically made by the publishers in a practical effort to assure accuracy and reliability of all advertisements. However, it is impossible to guarantee reader's satisfaction with the advertiser's manner of doing business, and the reader is therefore reminded to exercise common sense in responding to any advertisement. The reader is also urged to exercise patience in awaiting response from an advertiser, making allowances for sufficient mail transit time.

STAMP DESCRIPTIONS

Stamps offered for sale shall be accurately described. Damaged or repaired stamps should be properly noted in advertisements. Verification of an advertiser shipping damaged or repaired stamps in response to orders for better grade material will be sufficient cause for declining or suspension of further advertisements.

SOLD OUT

In the event an item is sold out, remittance should be returned within 48 hours. The advertiser will not hold the remittance pending arrival of a new supply without obtaining permission of the buyer.

AUTHENTICITY

The submission of an advertisement for publication is considered a warranty by the seller that all items offered are genuine. Any buyer of a fake or spurious item shall be entitled to full refund. Any purchaser who doubts the authenticity of an item may request an opinion from mutually acceptable authority. It is the responsibility of the purchaser to (A) advise the seller of action undertaken within 25 days of purchase and (B) submit the item to a mutually acceptable authority promptly.

Expenses incurred shall be borne by the purchaser except where the lot is other than as described.

COMPLAINTS

All advertisers will be notified of complaints received in writing from the readers and prompt adjustment by the advertiser, if warranted, and notification to the publisher will be expected as a condition of continued acceptance of advertising. Failure of an advertiser to adjust the cause of a complaint, or satisfactorily explain the same, will be considered sufficient reason for declining or suspending further advertising.

COPY REGULATIONS

All advertisements submitted are subject to copy regulations contained in the rate card. By submitting advertising, advertiser acknowledges that he is familiar with the advertising contract and copy regulations then in effect. Additional copies will be furnished upon request.

RESERVED RIGHT TO REJECT ADVERTISING

All advertising is submitted subject to publishers' approval. The publishers reserve the right to reject, or decline, advertising, or suspend advertising privileges for such periods of time as in their discretion they see fit, for any reason whatsoever, irrespective of the validity of the reasons for rejection or declination of advertising, or suspension of advertising privileges.

LIABILITY FOR CONTENTS OF ADS

Advertiser assumes liability for all contents (including text representation and illustrations) of advertisement printed and also assumes responsibility for any claims arising therefrom made against the publishers.

VERIFICATION

Acceptance of advertising for any item or service is subject to investigation and verification of the product or service, and of the claims made for it in the advertisement submitted for publication. All such investigations and verifications shall be to the publishers' satisfaction.

USE OF POST OFFICE BOX

California law requires complete legal company name and full street address from which the business is actually being conducted. A post office box or phone number is not considered sufficient.

We urge that complete information be included in all ads to promote uniformity and fairness between advertiser and reader.
